SUITED TO ALL INTERESTED PLAYERS

You will learn:

- What Roman Key Card Blackwood is about and why it is superior to Blackwood
- When to bid slams, how to bid to grand slams
- What a Splinter bid is, by either opener or responder
- How to bid slams with minimal values but perfect fits, and how to stay out of bad slams (with plenty of values but hands that fit poorly)
- Why we use Jacoby 2NT, and the implications from its use
- What a delayed game raise means
- What an immediate jump to game after 1-Major means
- When and why we use control cue bids
- What options exist for slam bidding after NT openings/rebids
- Various 'expansions' to RKCB

BOOKINGS NOT NECESSARY – JUST TURN UP IF INTERESTED AND AVAILABLE. PARTNERS NOT NECESSARY.
